Hi Ravi,

I have got it checked with our technical team and Cisco TAC. Below IOS Version is not compatible, compatible version is c2900-universalk9-mz.SPA.155-2.T1.bin

We can use this IOS but there are chances it might lead to improper functionality such as call drop, poor voice quality, issue in hold calls etc.

Can you please check if you have any other router which can operate on compatible IOS version.

Hi Ravi,

As discussed, please suggest if we can get 4 E1/T1 on this router.

Also, , the Cisco has declared EOL and EOS of said device.

<https://www.cisco.com/c/en/us/products/collateral/routers/2900-series-integrated-services-routers-isr/eos-eol-notice-c51-737831.html>

You need to apply UC licenses and IOS upgrade to existing VG's 15.5.
