Unless Supplier notifies Micron of its acceptance of this Order within twenty (20) days of the date hereof, this Order may expire, at Micron's option, without any liability to Micron.

3. TECHNICAL INFORMATION: All specifications, drawings, schematics, technical information, notes, instructions, or other information referred to on the face of the Purchase Order, or contained in attachments or exhibits thereto, are deemed to be incorporated herein by reference, and Supplier expressly acknowledges that it has received and read such referenced information and will treat it as Confidential Information in accordance with Section 15 hereof.

4. PRICE AND DELIVERY: Supplier shall furnish the goods and/or services in strict accordance with the price and delivery schedule stated in this Order. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE with respect to Supplier's performance of its obligations hereunder. Unless otherwise expressly stated in the Purchase Order, prices include all charges for inspection and packaging, all federal, state, and municipal sales, use, and excise taxes, goods and services taxes, and any customs duties not otherwise paid or provided for by Micron. If Micron is required by law to deduct or withhold tax liabilities of Supplier when making payments to Supplier, then Micron shall duly deduct or withhold taxes therefrom and remit such taxes to the local taxing jurisdiction and shall pay to Supplier the remaining net amount after the taxes have been withheld. Micron shall not reimburse Supplier for the amount of such taxes withheld. When goods are delivered and/or services are provided, or where the benefit of services occurs within jurisdictions in which Supplier's collection and remittance of taxes is required by law, Supplier shall have sole responsibility for payment of said taxes to the appropriate tax authorities. If Supplier does not collect taxes from Micron, and it is subsequently audited by any tax authority, liability of Micron will be limited to the taxes assessed, with no reimbursement for penalties or interest charges. Prices shall remain fixed until delivery of the goods and/or completion of the services contemplated hereunder. Micron may return or store, at Supplier's expense, any goods delivered more than five (5) days in advance of the delivery date. Supplier shall immediately notify Micron in writing when Supplier first has knowledge of any impending material shortage, governmental regulation, labor dispute, cyber-attack, or other event or impediment that could result in any delay in the delivery of the goods or performance of the services hereunder. If delivery or performance is not completed (to Micron's satisfaction) within the time stated in this Order, Micron may, in addition to Micron's other rights and remedies: (i) purchase the goods elsewhere or retain substitute performance of the services; (ii) charge Supplier for any resulting expense, loss, and/or damage; and/or (iii) terminate this Order (in whole or in part) with no liability to Micron.

If Micron does not provide shipping instructions to Supplier regarding the method of shipment to be used, Supplier shall ship the goods by normal carriage to Micron. Micron may reject any shipment not meeting these requirements. If, due to Supplier's failure to timely ship the goods, the specified method of transportation would not permit Supplier to meet the delivery date specified in the Purchase Order, Supplier shall, at Supplier's sole cost and expense, ship such goods by air transportation (or other expedited means acceptable to Micron) to enable Supplier to meet the delivery date specified in the Purchase Order. Upon Micron's request, Supplier will promptly provide Micron with a statement of origin for all goods, and with applicable customs documentation for goods wholly or partially manufactured outside of the country of import.

Micron will not be obligated to make payment against any invoices submitted after such period. Micron may reject any invoice for noncompliance with any of the provisions of this Order. The time periods for any cash discounts or payments shall commence on the later of (a) the date Micron accepts (to its satisfaction) the goods and/or services, or (b) the date Micron receives an accurate and conforming invoice for such goods and/or services (which shall include, without limitation, any supporting documentation). If, at any time before acceptance, Micron learns that the goods and/or services are defective or otherwise not in conformity with the requirements of this Order, including the warranties set forth in this Order, Micron may, in addition to Micron's other rights and remedies, upon written notice to Supplier: (a) rescind this Order as to such goods and/or services; (b) accept such goods and/or services (or any part thereof) at an equitable reduction in price determined by Micron; or (c) reject such goods and/or services and require, at Micron's option, replacement, repair, refurbishment, re-performance, or credit or rebate of the purchase price paid by Micron. All replacements and re-performance shall be delivered or undertaken immediately upon Micron's request and, if not, Micron may either (i) replace or correct such goods, and/or effect substitute performance for services, and charge Supplier for the costs incurred thereby, or (ii) terminate this Order for cause.

Additionally, Supplier shall obtain insurance in relation to its obligations under this Section, and otherwise under this Order, to safeguard the interests of the Micron Group.

12. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY INDEMNITY: Supplier shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless each member of the Micron Group from and against any and all Claims incurred as a result of an allegation that the goods, services, or the use of any goods or services purchased hereunder (or any component, part, or process thereof, or product made therewith, irrespective of whether Micron finishes any specifications to Supplier) infringes or misappropriates any patent, trademark, trade secret, copyright, mask work, or application thereof, or any other intellectual property right of a third party. If any such claim is asserted against any member of the Micron Group, Supplier shall, with counsel acceptable to Micron, defend such action at its expense and shall pay any related costs and damages, including legal costs and attorneys' fees, of both the Micron Group and Supplier. If any injunction shall be obtained against any member of the Micron Group in relation to the use of the goods and/or services (or any component thereof) provided by the Supplier by reason of infringement, Supplier shall, at its expense and at Micron's option, either immediately procure for the Micron Group the right to continue using the goods and/or services, or immediately replace or modify the same to become non-infringing (with equivalent form, fit, and function). Regardless of which of the foregoing remedies Micron elects, Supplier shall pay to Micron rework expenses and incremental costs incurred by any member of the Micron Group to procure alternative goods and/or services required to fulfill orders placed by any member of the Micron Group, and accepted by Supplier, as of the effective date of the injunction.

13. TECHNOLOGY RIGHTS: All products, information, and technology produced, conceived, or otherwise developed under this Order for Micron, or as a result of technology furnished by Micron (collectively, "developments") shall be deemed "works made for hire" and the intellectual property rights in such developments shall vest exclusively in Micron. Supplier agrees to use such developments only in connection with this Order and otherwise to retain them as Confidential Information of Micron in accordance with Section 15 below. Supplier, at its cost, hereby assigns to Micron all right, title, and interest in all developments and shall fully cooperate with and assist Micron in perfecting such right, title, and interest. Supplier represents, warrants, and agrees that it will not incorporate any third party intellectual property into any developments, goods, or other deliverables provided hereunder without notifying and obtaining the prior written approval of Micron. Supplier hereby waives any and all moral rights, including the right to identification of authorship or limitation on subsequent modification that Supplier (or its employees) has or may have in any invention, material, development, or other deliverable assigned to Micron hereunder. If Micron cancels this Order without cause, Micron shall reimburse Supplier for Supplier's reasonable out-of-pocket expenses properly and directly allocable to and resulting from such cancellation, net of any amounts that Supplier receives or should have received if it mitigated the cancellation as required herein by selling to a third party the goods and/or services that were to be delivered hereunder, as determined by Micron according to generally accepted accounting principles. Before assuming any payment obligation under this Section, Micron may inspect Supplier's work in process and audit all relevant documents to confirm Supplier's compliance with the terms herein. The amount of such reimbursement shall in no event exceed an amount equal to the portion of the price that is allocable to the canceled portion of the Order. Such reimbursement shall be Supplier's sole and exclusive remedy for any such cancellation and must be submitted to Micron in writing within thirty (30) days after receipt of Micron's termination notice. Upon payment of Supplier's discharge, Micron shall be entitled to all goods and services work (including work in process) and materials paid for. In addition to Micron's other rights and remedies, Micron may cancel or suspend this Order, in whole or in part, by written notice to Supplier, for cause, if: (a) the goods and/or services or any part thereof fail any inspection or test hereunder, or are defective or non-conforming; (b) the goods and/or services are not delivered to Micron as scheduled; (c) Supplier makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, a receiver and/or manager for Supplier is appointed, or a petition for bankruptcy, winding up, judicial management, or corporate reorganization under any bankruptcy or similar laws is filed by or against Supplier; or (d) Supplier fails to comply with any of the terms or conditions of this Order. Either party may disclose this Order, and any facts relating to this Order, to any governmental body or agency in connection with any official investigation or inquiry into compliance related to this Section 18.

19. TRADE COMPLIANCE: In connection with the sale, purchase, and/or receipt of the goods (including, without limitation, any components, hardware, materials, software, equipment, machinery, tools, technology, and/or technical data related thereto) from Supplier to Micron, Supplier hereby agrees to comply fully with all applicable U.S. and foreign laws and regulations related to export controls, customs regulations, and sanctions, including, without limitation: (a) those regulations maintained by the U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC"); (b) the U.S. Export Administration Regulations ("EAR") maintained by the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of Industry and Security ("BIS"); (c) the U.S. State Department's International Traffic in Arms Regulations ("ITAR"); (d) Customs and Border Protection ("CBP"); and (e) Foreign Trade (Development & Regulation) Act, 1992 and the related rules and regulations thereunder from time to time. Without limiting the foregoing, to the extent required under applicable U.S., foreign, or Indian law, Supplier agrees that it shall not, directly or indirectly, sell, export, re-export, transfer, release, service, divert, or otherwise dispose of any goods provided by Micron to Supplier directly or indirectly (including the release of controlled technology to foreign nationals from controlled countries) to or via any person, firm, entity, or country subject to: (i) export licensing requirements or other government approval; (ii) economic sanctions or trade embargoes (including entities or persons in or acting on behalf of such countries); or (iii) for any activity or use that is prohibited by the laws or regulations of the United States or other applicable jurisdiction, without obtaining prior authorization from all competent government authorities as required by those laws and regulations. Supplier understands that any goods provided by Supplier to Micron, as well as certain goods derived therefrom, may be subject to U.S. law and that re-export or diversion contrary to U.S. law may be prohibited. Supplier shall provide Micron with information regarding the export controls, customs classifications, and the country of origin, where applicable, for any goods provided by Supplier to Micron, including Export Control Classification Numbers, U.S. Munitions List Categories, Harmonized Tariff Schedule Codes, Schedule B Numbers, any other required commodity control codes, and any required non-U.S. classifications applicable to the transaction. In the event Supplier has not classified nor received classification from the manufacturer for goods provided by Supplier to Micron, Supplier shall provide Micron with sufficient information to classify such goods. Notwithstanding any other agreement between Supplier and Micron, neither party shall be required to take any action that is prohibited or penalized under the laws of the United States or other applicable jurisdiction, including, without limitation, the U.S. antiboycott laws administered by BIS and the U.S. Treasury Department's Internal Revenue Service. Upon Micron's request, Supplier shall submit to Micron a final bill-of-materials identifying all materials and/or components included in the goods and/or services supplied and/or installed by Supplier, as well as any other relevant information requested by Micron (which may include, without limitation, information identifying the source and/or country of origin for each material and component included in the goods and/or services supplied and/or installed by Supplier).

20. PRIVACY: "Personally Identifiable Information" means information that relates to an identified or identifiable individual, such as individuals' contact information, employee ID numbers, or other information about specific individuals. Supplier and its subcontractors will not use or disclose any Personally Identifiable Information it receives or creates in connection with this Order other than to perform Supplier's obligations under the Order in compliance with law. Supplier and its subcontractors will comply with all legal requirements applicable to its handling of Personally Identifiable Information. Supplier shall take all measures necessary to ensure the security of such information and all other Micron data. Within thirty (30) days of the termination or expiration of this Order, Supplier will comply with any request from Micron to provide it with a copy of such Personally Identifiable Information and then, regardless of whether such request has been made, securely delete such Personally Identifiable Information, except to the extent (a) retention of such information is reasonably necessary to administer another Order that is then in force or under active negotiation with Micron or (b) Supplier is legally required to retain it. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Supplier shall protect, defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Micron Group from and against all Claims from any data subject or government authority asserted against any member of the Micron Group arising from or related in any way to breaches of any relevant laws governing privacy, data protection, or Personally Identifiable Information.

21. MICRON'S EQUIPMENT: All tools, equipment, parts, materials, drawings, and specifications furnished by Micron shall remain Micron's exclusive property, shall be used only for work performed for Micron, and shall be returned to Micron immediately upon demand or upon the termination or completion of this Order, whichever is earlier.

22. ASSIGNMENTS; CHANGE OF CONTROL: Supplier shall not assign, delegate, or subcontract this Order (or any obligations hereunder), whether by operation of law or otherwise, without Micron's prior written consent. Any such attempted assignment or delegation without Micron's prior written consent shall be void and of no force or effect and, at Micron's option, shall be cause for Micron's termination of this Order. Micron shall be entitled at any time to assign, delegate, or subcontract this Order (or any obligations hereunder) to any third party without Supplier's prior written consent. Supplier shall provide Micron at least ninety (90) days' prior written notice of any change of Control. In the event of a change of Control of Supplier, Micron may (at its option) terminate this Order by giving Supplier thirty (30) days' prior written notice thereof. For purposes of this Order, "Control" shall mean: (a) the legal, beneficial, or equitable ownership, directly or indirectly, of (i) at least fifty percent (50%) of the aggregate of all voting equity interests in an entity, or (ii) equity interests having the right to at least fifty percent (50%) of the profits of an entity or, in the event of dissolution, to at least fifty percent (50%) of the assets of an entity; (b) the right to appoint, directly or indirectly, a majority of the board of directors; (c) the right to control, directly or indirectly, the management or direction of the entity by contract or corporate governance document; or (d) in the case of a partnership, the holding by an entity (or one of its affiliates) of the position of sole general partner.

23. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN PARTIES: The relationship between the parties hereto is that of independent contractors. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as creating any partnership, joint venture, or agency between Micron and Supplier. Supplier's employees, agents, and subcontractors shall not be deemed agents or employees of Micron. Supplier shall have complete charge and responsibility for its employees, representatives, agents, and subcontractors and their respective employees, representatives, and agents. Supplier shall comply with all applicable laws regarding terms and conditions of employment, payment of all statutory dues, payment of minimum wage, legally mandated employee benefits, compliance with mandated work hours, and employment of underage or child labor, and Micron shall be entitled to request from Supplier appropriate documentation (to Micron's satisfaction) verifying Supplier's compliance with the foregoing. Supplier shall comply with all employment and labor laws when providing services, and must provide its employees with the legal right to work in the country in which they are working. The indemnity set forth in Section 11 above shall include any Claim made or threatened, whether by legal proceedings or otherwise, against Micron by a third party on the grounds that any person supplied or engaged by Supplier is or was deemed to be an employee of Micron. Supplier further agrees that if Micron is required by law or otherwise to include Supplier or any of Supplier's employees in any of Micron's benefit plans, or provide severance benefits under law, Supplier shall reimburse Micron for the actual amount required to be paid, or the fair market value of any benefit received by Supplier and/or Supplier's employees arising from work performed under this Order.

24. SAFETY COMPLIANCE AND NON-INTERFERENCE: If Supplier or any subcontractor of Supplier performs any services or collects or delivers any goods on Micron's premises, Supplier shall, and shall cause such subcontractor to: (a) comply with all of Micron's safety and security requirements, such as Micron's Contractor and Vendor EHS Requirements Standard, and all other applicable or pertinent health and safety laws and regulations; and (b) provide Micron with evidence of insurance in accordance with the minimum limits required by Micron. Supplier agrees that Supplier and its assigns, employees, representatives, subcontractors, and agents shall comply with all directives of Micron's supervisory personnel and further shall not interfere with any of Micron's operations. Non-compliance with the foregoing may, at Micron's option, result in termination of this Order for cause.

25. FORCE MAJEURE: Micron shall not be responsible, in any manner, for any failure or delay in the performance of any of its obligations hereunder caused by a strike, lockout, or other industrial disturbance, act of public enemies, any government action, civil or military action, insurrection, riot, landslide, hurricane, drought, fire, earthquake, explosion, flood, storm, act of God, or any other cause or event (whether foreseeable or unforeseeable) not reasonably within Micron's control.

26. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY: TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, IN NO EVENT SHALL ANY MEMBER OF THE MICRON GROUP BE LIABLE TO SUPPLIER FOR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE, CONSEQUENTIAL, OR OTHER DAMAGES (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, LOST PROFITS) ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS ORDER, WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT, OR ANY OTHER THEORY OF LIABILITY, EVEN IF THE MICRON GROUP (OR ANY MEMBER THEREOF) HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES OR LIABILITY. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, IN NO EVENT SHALL THE AGGREGATE LIABILITY OF THE MICRON GROUP ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS ORDER EXCEED THE LESSER OF THE AMOUNTS PAYABLE BY MICRON TO SUPPLIER UNDER THIS ORDER, OR TEN THOUSAND U.S. DOLLARS ($10,000). SUPPLIER FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CLAIM OR ACTION BROUGHT BY SUPPLIER AGAINST ANY MEMBER OF THE MICRON GROUP ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS ORDER MUST BE COMMENCED BY SUPPLIER WITHIN ONE (1) YEAR FROM THE DATE THE CAUSE OF ACTION AROSE.

27. NOTICES: All notices shall be in writing and deemed effective upon delivery: (a) in person; or (b) by registered mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, and to the addresses set forth herein, as the same may be changed pursuant to a written notice provided pursuant to this Section 27. Supplier shall also send a copy of any notice to the attention of Micron's Chief Legal Officer at such address as designated by Micron.

28. GOVERNING LAW; EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION: This Order, the validity, interpretation, and performance of this Order, and all matters arising hereunder or in connection herewith shall be exclusively governed by and construed solely in accordance with the laws of India. The parties hereto hereby expressly acknowledge and agree that the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods shall not apply to the rights and obligations of the parties under this Order or the interpretation of the terms and conditions of this Order. Supplier hereby consents to the jurisdiction of the courts located in Bangalore, India for any dispute involving or arising in connection with this Order.

29. REMEDIES/NON-WAIVER: Micron's remedies provided herein are cumulative and in addition to any other or further remedies provided by law or in equity. Any waiver of any kind by a party of a breach of this Order must be in writing, shall be effective only to the extent set forth in such writing, and shall not operate or be construed as a waiver by such party of any subsequent breach. Any delay or omission in exercising any right, power, or remedy pursuant to a breach or default by a party shall not impair any right, power, or remedy that such party may have with respect to that or any other future breach or default.

30. ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS: The prevailing party to any legal action arising out of this Order shall be entitled to recover, from the other party, all the attorneys' fees and costs the prevailing party incurred in bringing or defending such action, including such fees and costs on appeals.

31. SEVERABILITY: If it is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, as part of a final nonappealable ruling, government action, or binding arbitration, that any provision of this Order (or part thereof) is invalid, illegal, or otherwise unenforceable, such provision shall be enforced as nearly as possible in accordance with the stated intention of the parties, while the remainder of this Order shall remain in full force and effect and bind the parties according to its terms. To the extent any provision (or part thereof) cannot be enforced in accordance with the stated intentions of the parties, such provision (or part thereof) shall be deemed not to be a part of this Order; provided that in such event the parties shall use their best efforts to negotiate, in good faith, a substitute, valid, and enforceable provision that most nearly effects the parties' intent in entering into this Order.

32. HEADINGS: Headings are inserted solely for convenience of reference, shall not constitute a part of this Order, and shall not otherwise affect the interpretation hereof.

33. ELECTRONIC TRANSACTIONS: Subject to the terms and conditions of this Section 33, Micron and Supplier agree that this Order and all documents related to the transactions contemplated by this Order will be transmitted electronically through Micron's system or application of choice. This includes, but is not limited to, transmission of purchase orders, order confirmations, advance ship notices, and/or invoices. In connection with system-to-system implementations, the parties will implement the particular transaction sets and/or message specifications mutually agreed upon by the parties. Each party's implementation will comply with applicable standards (e.g., applicable ANSI standards or RosettaNet PIPs), except as otherwise mutually agreed in writing. If any element of an applicable standard conflicts with a provision of this Order, the provision of this Order will control. Where applicable standards require that the receiving party issue a notice to the other confirming message receipt, such notice will not constitute a binding acceptance or acknowledgement of anything more than mere receipt. If a party has adopted an electronic identifier (e.g., a digital signature), the other party is entitled to rely on the authenticity of messages signed by or otherwise associated with such electronic identifier, unless and until notified otherwise by the adopter. Either party may use a third party service provider in connection with e-Business activities (e.g., to route or translate EDI or XML messages, or to host web-based services). The party contracting with a service provider (as contemplated in this Section) must require that such service provider (a) use information disclosed to or learned by such service provider in connection with providing services solely for the purpose of providing the applicable services, and (b) not disclose such information to any third party. Either party may begin to use a service provider (as contemplated in this Section) that it wishes to engage and may change a service provider that it had previously engaged upon reasonable prior written notice to the other party. Each party will be liable for the acts or omissions of its service provider in connection with the activities contemplated by this Section.

34. NO THIRD PARTY RIGHTS: Nothing in this Order, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any person or entity not a party hereto any right, benefit, or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Order.

35. SURVIVAL: Any provisions herein that by their nature extend beyond the expiration, termination, or fulfillment of this Order shall survive such expiration, termination, or fulfillment.
